In Memoriam

SIR CHARLES H. DAVIS

Born January 17, 1854 Knighted April 22, 1890

Died February 11, 1929

The tower of strength and excellence of the Templar Order rests in its guaranty of a man's moral, social and business character that no other society in the world can give; and inscribed upon the folds of its banner the declaration that we wield our swords in the defense of truth and justice. The Templar should be moral in his character, refined in his habits and thoughts and never forget Masonry teaches the practice of the cardinal virtues and the cultivation of the liberal arts and sciences. It is an active, living principle. Charity, fraternity and benevolence are dominant attributes. - West Virginia.

The Blue Lodge furnishes material for the Chapter and the Chapter offers us the prepared ashlar well adapted to Templar purposes - yet we do not always make the proper effort to place it in the walls of our asylum. Neglect and non-interest have killed more enterprises than lack of material or mismanagement. - Tennessee.

A gentleman in the banking line was asked to say grace, and this is what he said:-

"Dear Lord, we thank Thee for all Thy favors of recent dates. Permit us to express our heartfelt gratitude. We trust that we may continue to merit Your confidence and that we shall receive many more blessings from You in the near future. Amen"
